

GUIDE TO CONTENTS OF CAMDEN HISTORY

THE JOURNAL OF CAMDEN HISTORICAL SOCIETY

Volumes 1 and 2

This lists all the articles which have been published in the Society's Journal

The contents are arranged under the following headings:

AGRICULTURE

BUILDINGS AND SERVICES

CAMDEN HISTORICAL SOCIETY AND MUSEUM

EDUCATION

SOCIAL HISTORY

SPORTS AND RECREATIONS

MISCELLANEOUS

Copies of the Journal can be purchased at $5.00 each. If the issue is out of print arrangements can be made for a photocopy of an article.

Title of articles	Volume	Number	Pages
AGRICULTURE
Wheat growing in Camden: Dick Nixon. Wheat was grown and milled in Camden in the 1840s and 50s until the industry was destroyed by the arrival of the disease 'rust'.	1	3	56-58
Thomas Barker and the Maryland Winery: Don Gapes. The history of the Maryland property, its vineyard, winery and buildings in the mid 1800s.	1	5	96-103
A history of dairy farming in the Camden district: Peter Mylrea	2	4	144-166
BUILDINGS and SERVICES

Teamsters' Memorial - Yerranderie silver ore: Dick Nixon. Explains the reason for the Memorial and how it came to be erected.	1	1	11-14
Bransby Cottage - A Camden colonial cottage: Colin & Agnes Mills. This is one of the oldest residences in Camden and these articles cover its restoration and some of its residents. Part 1: The building before restoration. Part 2: Restoration. Part 3: Owners and occupiers in the early days. Part 4: George Bransby, an owner and occupier. Part 5: The Crown v. Ann and Sarah Norris	1 1 1 1 1	2 4 5 6 8	37-45 77-86 116-123 129-134 193-200
The bells of St John's Church: Pauline Downing. A description of the bells and clock.	1	4	85-86
The telephone comes to Camden: Dick Nixon & Peter Mylrea. The telephone service arrived in Camden in 1910. The first telephone directory for Camden was published in 1913. The article gives details of many of the early subscribers to the service.	1	5	104-115
A brief history of Studley Park: Ray Herbert Traces the history of the land, the construction of Studley Park House and its subsequent history to 1996.	1	6	145-148
Where have all the little churches gone: Dick Nixon. In the earlier days in the Camden district many communities built their own local church but many have since disappeared leaving little evidence of ever having existed.	1	8	178-182
Bridges crossing the Nepean River at Camden: Peter Mylrea Covers the history of local bridges from the first Cowpasture Bridge in 1826 to the Macarthur Bridge together with notes on the Macquarie Grove Bridge and Little Sandy Bridge.	1	8	183-192
The birth, growth and demise of picture theatres in Camden: Peter Mylrea A history of cinema in Camden from its first showing in 1913 to its closure in the 1950s.	2	3	52-60
Aussie roofing began with bark: Pauline Downing Early bark and metal roofing.	2	3	74-76
Gas and Electricity in Camden: Peter Mylrea The history of these utilities.	2	5	139-149
Camden Gas Works 1954-1970: Les Pluis and Peter Mylrea The Gas Works through the experiences of an employee.	2	5	150-154
The Centenary of the Royal Forester's Hall: Peter Mylrea This hall at the corner of Argyle and Oxley Streets has been used for many purposes in its one hundred year history.	2	6	204-
Recollections of Burnham Grove: Jenny Akers The historic Burnham Grove house was built about 1917 and	2	6	214-222 is still occupied.

Heritage Buildings 125-147 Argyle Street Camden: Peter Mylrea This part of Argyle Street contains a number of buildings over 100 years old. This article gives the histories of these buildings.	2	6	223-234
Camden – Campbelltown Railway A train trip and what remains of the line in 2008.	2	7	254-263
Camden Fire Brigade	2	8	313-324
Belman Hangars, Camden Airfield	2	9	361-362
Accident on the Campbelltown-Camden Tramway (1882).	2	9	363-364
CAMDEN HISTORICAL SOCIETY AND MUSEUM
Camden Historical Society – Its first twenty five years: Peter Mylrea. The Camden Historical Society was formed in 1957 and this article covers its development in the twenty five years to 1982.	1	1	3-11
Federation Exhibition at Camden Museum: John Wrigley. A description of the Museum’s Exhibition as a contribution to the celebration of the Centenary of Australian Federation in 2001.	1	1	14-21
Federation Exhibition at Camden Museum: Peter Hayward. Further information on the Museum’s Federation Centenary Exhibit.	1	1	36-37
Building the Collection: John Wrigley. The history of the Camden Historical Museum from its establishment in the late 1960s through to the 1990s.	1	7	149-153
Annual General Meeting 2002.	1	4	73-76
Annual Report 2002-2003.	1	6	126-128
Annual Report 2003-2004.	1	8	175-177
Annual General Meeting 2005.	1	10	225-227
Annual General Meeting 2006	2	2	24-29
President’s Report 2007	2	4	81-85
President’s Report 2008	2	6	186-194
Camden Historical Society – its second twenty five years – 1982 – 2007: John Wrigley	2	4	90-95
Fifty years of local history – The Camden Historical Society – 1957 to 2007: Ian Willis	2	4	96-119
Camden Council’s Civic Reception to celebrate 50 years of local history: Ian Willis	2	4	120-124
Minutes of a meeting held on 24 July 1957 Those attending this meeting voted unanimously to form the	2	4	124-126

Camden Historical Society. This was followed by the election of officers.
President's Report 2009-2010	2	10	385-387
Minutes of the first Ordinary General Meeting of the Camden Historical Society This meeting followed on immediately after the above inaugural meeting.	2	4	126-127
Mosaic item (object) Historical Research Report.	2	10	401
Museum Object Record on Mosaic. Object: Pansy Painting.	2	10	402-404
EDUCATION
Improving literacy in Camden in the nineteenth century: Dick Nixon Traces the decline of X marks in the registers of St John's Church over the years from 1843 to 1891 and relates this to the development of schools and education in the district.	1	7	153-156
Teaching at Camden Central School 1950 – 1956: Don Baker. The reminiscences of Don Baker who taught at Camden Central School from 1950 until he transferred to the Camden High School when it opened in 1957.	2	1	20-22
Ron Bentley. Camden High School English Master	2	7	264-266
SOCIAL HISTORY
The Ganders in Camden as I remember them: Jack Gander. About his father and his horse team which carried ore from the Yerranderie mines.	1	3	54-56
Hugh McCrae – Australian poet: John Wrigley. McCrae lived in Camden for some time and these are local stories.	1	4	92-95
Camden at war- Second World War 1939-1945 a brief overview: Ian Willis. Surveys many of the activities and developments in Camden as a consequence of the outbreak of World War II.	1	7	156-174
Military Activities in Camden in the late 1800s: Peter Mylrea. Traces the early military activities in Camden from 1885 to the formation of the Camden Mounted Rifles in 1891 and its subsequent activities until after the Boer War.	1	9	206-220
'The Gentry and the village' Camden 1800-1939: Ian Willis. A study of the development of Camden with a focus on social aspects and the role of some of the dominant people	1	10	228-242 especially from the 'gentry'.

Some photographers of Camden: Peter Mylrea. Covers amateur and professional photographer who took photos of Camden in the period 1850s to 1920s with examples of their work.	1	10	243-259
Nan Blattman – A Gracious Lady: John Wrigley. An obituary.	2	1	1
Owen Blattman OAM - Museum Stalwart: John Wrigley. An obituary.	2	1	2
Life and health of the Macarthurs: Karen Farmer. Covers the health and ailments of John and Elizabeth Macarthur and their children.	2	2	33-47
Camden Branch of Save the Children – 1973 to 2006: Julie Wrigley The Camden Branch of the Save the Children Fund was formed in 1973 and is still going in 2006. This article covers its activities over this time.	2	3	63-70
Memories of living in Macaria 1938-1952: J.W. Jefferis. The writer was the son of Dr Robert Jefferis who lived in and practised from Macaria. J.W. Jefferis. recounts some of his boyhood experiences.	2	3	71-76
Memories of summer holidays at Hillview Lodges Road Elderslie in the 1940s: Anne Oehme and Ian Willis	2	4	128-139
Vale: Dick Nixon, A Eulogy: J. Wrigley	2	5	155-157
A conversation with Joy Thorn OAM. Ian Willis and Cathey Shepherd. The life and times of a long term Camden resident.	2	5	165-184
Camden: Ian Willis A physical and social history of the township of Camden.	2	195-203
Recollections of Ina Cameron (nee Hearne).	2	7	267-271
The lifestyles war and the 'Aspirationalists' of Sydney's West	2	7	236-245
'Rose Cottage' 14 Barsden Street, Camden.	2	7	272-279
Marguerite (Rita) Stewart Tucker (1984-1961).	2	7	280-282
Central Flying School RAAF, Camden Airfield 1940-1942.	2	8	287-292
US Air Force and Camden Airfield	2	8	293-294
32 Squadron RAAF, Camden Airfield 1942-1944.	2	8	295-304
Policing Camden in the early years, Camden Police Station, 1805-1878.	2	8	305-312
Adeline West , a Camden doctor's wife.	2	8	325-327
R.L. Pinkerton, Camden finest bowler	2	8	328-330
Honor Sidman, an inspiring life.	2	8	331-333
Richard Hawkey, a Camden pioneer.	2	8	334-335
Toc H, caring for people.	2	8	336-337
Eliza Pearson, Camden's first postmistress	2	8	338-339
George Armour, bushman and beekeeper.	2	8	340-342

The Clissold family, seven generations in Cobbitty and district.	2	8	343-347
The loss of a child, our early settlers' grief.	2	8	348-349
Henry Pollock Reeves, a significant man.	2	9	354-360
William Henry Paling, Music Man and generous benefactor.	2	9	365-367
Violet Amelia Maud Bell, Nursr Millie Bell.	2	9	368-369
Martin Thurn, vinedresser and pioneerof Elderslie.	2	9	370-371
Frances Coker, a convict's daughter.	2	9	372-374
Henry Gratton Douglass, Douglas Park	2	9	375-381
Ben Hodge, watchmaker and community worker.	2	9	382-384
Charity volunteers, the good works of Kay Sidman and others in Camden.	2	10	388-400
Maud Hodge's wedding dress.	2	10	412-419
SPORTS AND RECREATION
Some of the early recreations and sports in Camden: Dick Nixon. Covers a wide range of recreations and sports played and followed by locals from the 1890s through to the 1930s.	1	6	135-144
Swimming in the Nepean River at Camden: Peter Mylrea. Covers swimming activities from the early 1900s to the 1950s with the reminiscences of Camden people who swam in the river from the 1930s onwards.	2	1	3-20
Sharman's Boxing Troupe: Pauline Downing Jimmy Sharman was born in Narellan and went on to run his Boxing Troupe which toured shows throughout Australia for many years.	2	3	61-63
Oran Park A history of Oran Park Raceway.	2	7	246-250
Oran Park Buildings at the raceway.	2	7	251-253
MISCELLANEOUS
Origin of the name Mount Annan: Peter Mylrea. Evidence is given to suggest that the hill called Mount Annan was named by William Howe in the 1820s. Howe came from Annandale in Scotland.	1	5	123-124
Rain water – the stuff of life: Pauline Downing. An account of the Downes family at Brownlow Hill who have kept rainfall records for 150 years.	2	2	30-32
Frozen Rabbits and the Camden Freezing Works: Dick Nixon and Peter Mylrea Rabbit trapping was an industry in the early 1900s and the	2	3	77-78

Freezing Works were established to process the rabbits and send them to Sydney.
Objects and their stories – Kitchen chair: Betty Scott and Ian Willis	2	4	86-87
Beep! ... the emu: Pauline Downing An emu resident of Camden.	2	4	117-119
Childs Stroller – Julie Wrigley. A stroller in a family history.	2	5	162-164
Early Medical Instruments: S. Pacchiarotta	2	5	158-161
A revised assessment of the location of Mount Taurus.	2	10	405-411